

18. Pinneberger Kleinkunstfestival

6th and 7th June 2020, Pinneberg City

► The festival:

The Pinneberg Kleinkunstfestival is an institution in northern Germany. For 18 years, artists, acrobats, magicians and jugglers from all over the world have been transforming the pedestrian zone in Pinneberg City into a huge open-air stage for two days in May or June. Every year, this special street art attracts thousands of visitors and day visitors from Greater Hamburg to our county seat. Traditionally combined with an sale open Sunday, the street artists delight children, families and shopping enthusiasts.

► Who can apply?

Newcomers, established individual artists and / or groups from all over the world. There is stage time for a total of EIGHT artists.

► Facts / Requirements:

- What to play? Two shows per day (Saturday and Sunday)
- How long to play? At least 20 to a maximum of 30 minutes
- Where to play? Under the open sky in the pedestrian area in Pinneberg at two fixed places.
- Performance area - A sound system and a technician is provided at both places. No stages. The performance takes place on the ground.
- Fee - Every artist/group gets an appearance fee of €500.
- Travel costs - Foreign artists receive a travel allowance.
- Passing the hat - It is expressly permitted and required to pass the hat after each show.
- Price money - There will be a public's choice award. The audience will vote for their favorite artist. The one with the most votes gets price money of €500.
- Final show - There is a farewell show on Sunday evening. Every artist shows a short extract of about 2 minutes from his program.
- Catering and accommodation - Is provided by the organizer.
